Arts and Science Fair Winners at Guernsey

With today's edition Hope Star completes publication of the winners in the annual Hempstead County Literary Meet.

This combined Arts and Science Fair opened March 13 with Saratoga hosting the first five divisions, the winning entry pictures being published in The Star March 18. The meet then moved to Blevins March 17, and to Guernsey March 19. It was originally scheduled for March 18 at Washington, but that event had to be postponed to April 3.

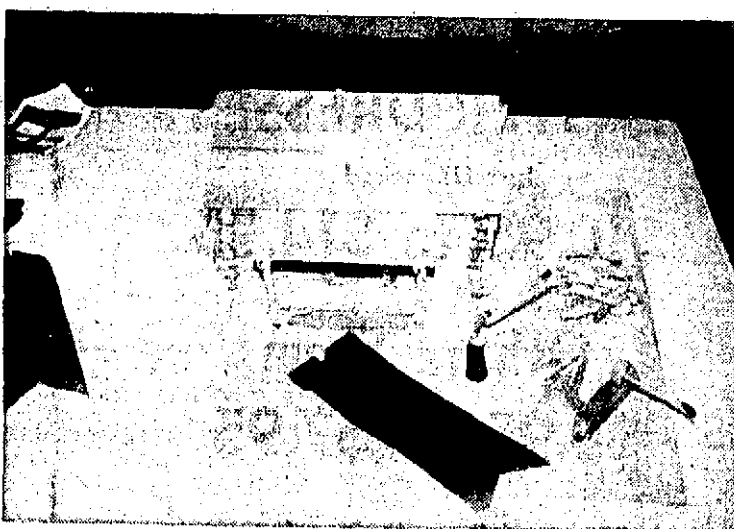

Publication of the Guernsey meeting pictures was begun yesterday and is completed today — a total of 36 photographs. With 6 from the Saratoga meet published March 18 this makes a grand total of 42 in three editions.

The Star expresses thanks to Mrs. Elsie Huckabee of the Guernsey school who produced all 42 pictures — the 42 being uniformly good, a professional accomplishment, indeed. She used Sheriff Jimmie Griffin's Polaroid camera—and thanks go to him, also.

Participating schools in the annual Literary Meet: Guernsey, Patmos, Washington, Spring Hill, Saratoga, and Blevins.

Doyle Jones in Race for Constable

The Hope Star is authorized today to announce the candidacy of Doyle Jones of Hope for the office of constable of DeRoan Township.

Mr. Jones said: "I would like to take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of constable of DeRoan Township."

"I was born in Hempstead County and have lived here all of my life. I am 33 years old, married to Martha Dugan of Emmett, and we have two children, Nadine and Darlene. "I am now employed at Freedom's Angus Farm. I am a member of the Church of Christ.

"This is my first time to seek public office, and if elected as your Constable I will endeavor to give the people of DeRoan Township the type of law enforcement they are entitled to, regardless of race, creed or color.

To each of you in DeRoan Township, I earnestly solicit your vote and support in the coming Democratic primary.

Sincerely,
DOYLE JONES

Boys, Girls State Picks Announced

The Leslie Huddleston post 12 and its Auxiliary announce the eleventh grade Hope High School students who were selected to attend the 1964 session of Boys and Girls State in June. The girls are:

Margie Herndon, Myrle Cox, Poleda Glanton, Sharon Frith, Cissie Ellis, Karen Cobb, Mary Ann Bader, and Kathy Thrash.

The boys include Carter Hargrave, Mike Archer, Paul Guerin, Harry Ray McMahon, John Scott Andrews, Tommy Bright, and David Grimmett.

These students were selected by the Hope High School faculty according to the qualifications set forth by the Legion and the Auxiliary. Boys and Girls State is an American Legion and Auxiliary sponsored event, but other local organizations contribute funds for the expense of these delegates and the names of these contributors will be announced at a later date when the list has been completed.

Plane Skids in, Passengers Safe

AIROBI, Kenya (AP)—An Alitalia airliner with 136 passengers aboard screeched to an emergency halt at the end of the runway at Nairobi Airport early today when one engine failed as the jet was about to take off.

The passengers, including many women and children, were evacuated from the DC8 down emergency chutes. Airport firemen sprayed the aircraft with foam.

None of the passengers or 12 crewmen was injured.

Senate to Take Up House Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate, breaking a deadlock lasting since March 9, voted today to take up for formal consideration the House-passed civil rights bill.

Southerners, who have used the motion to take up as the basis for lengthy speeches bitterly attacking the bill itself, finally let the vote come on the 17th day of the debate.

The motion, made by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, passed overwhelmingly as expected.

The Senate met today at 9 a. m., three hours ahead of its usual time, and the roll call came without any further speech-making.

This first vote cleared the way for a motion by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., to send the bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., for 10 days of hearings and study.

Democratic leaders planned to try to kill this move with a tabling motion later today but expected the outcome to be close.

However, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the bill, predicted that the tabling motion would win and that the Senate could begin its debate on the bill itself Monday after a three-day Easter recess.

Senate Wants Sheriffs to Do Registration

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Opposition to the sheriff-collector version of a voter registration bill collapsed in the Arkansas Legislature today and the Senate passed a crucial emergency clause to the sheriff-collector bill it approved Wednesday.

The legislature seemed ready to approve a voter registration bill naming sheriff-collectors as registrars and providing for annual registration.

Final passage cannot come before Friday since it takes two days to move a bill through both houses.

The legislature had deadlocked on whether assessors or sheriff-collectors should be the voter registrars.

But Senate and House leaders for an assessors version of the bill admitted defeat today. Sen. Dan Sprick of Little Rock brought one of his assessors bills to a vote and it failed 14 to 18. He said he has no intention of calling up the other bill.

The Senate by a 27 to 5 vote approved the emergency clause to the sheriff-collectors bill. The emergency clause failed Tuesday by one vote. It needed 24 and got only 23.

The emergency clause is crucial because without it the law will not take effect until 90 days after the special session and there will not be time for a court test of constitutionality before this summer's elections.

The new voter registration law will replace the poll tax outlawed for federal elections by the 24th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The House defeated both the sheriff-collectors and the assessors bills Wednesday. Notice of reconsideration was given on both and either can be brought to another vote today.

Without debate the Senate and House passed all the non-registration items which each other approved and sent over Wednesday.

Included were measures to increase the penalty for interfering with an election by riotous or sit-in activity at a polling place, and to legalize marriages of persons whose marriages are void under a 1941 act stipulating that the bride must be 16 and the groom 18.

The Senate passed unanimously a bill appropriating $198,000 for repairs to the House chamber.

Voting in both houses showed clearly Wednesday that the system finally adopted would provide for annual rather than permanent registration along lines drawn by the Legislative Council after hearings on voter

Candlelight Communion Service

A Candlelight Communion Service will be held at the Presbyterian Church tonight at 7:30. This is an annual observance of the church and it has always been a deeply spiritual and inspiring Service.

The sanctuary will be illumined by candles only except for the illuminated cross. In the soft light of the candles members of the congregation participate in the Service and they are reminded of that Service in the Upper Room on that night in the long ago when Christ instituted the Lord's Supper.

Special music will be a feature of the Service.

Everyone is invited to attend and all professing Christians are invited to partake of the emblems which symbolize the broken body and shed blood of our Lord.

Fulbright Is Charged With Appeasement

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican national chairman, William E. Miller, charges Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., with "promoting appeasement."

"The course Sen. Fulbright advocates is the same road which Neville Chamberlain traveled in the 1930s," Miller said in a statement today. "It is a course which Republicans will oppose now as they have opposed it in the past."

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called on the Johnson administration and the nation Wednesday to abandon "old myths" and face up to "the new realities of our time."

He called for prompt revision of the Panama Canal Treaty and a new attitude toward Cuba—viewing its Communist Prime Minister Fidel Castro as a nuisance but not a grave threat to the United States.

Miller did not see the word appeasement in his attack on Fulbright. But there could be no other implication to the reference to Chamberlain the pre-World War II British prime minister who acceded to German's territorial demands on its neighbors.

Miller said Fulbright's remarks—a 70-minute speech titled "Old Myths and New Realities" delivered to an almost empty Senate chamber—set the stage for the foreign policy debate in the 1964 campaign.

"This is a trial balloon which the Johnson administration is sending up to prepare public opinion for the acceptance of a foreign policy that could lead only to disaster for the United States and other free nations," said Miller a New York congressman.

White House sources described Fulbright's speech as very interesting and with many items worthy of consideration. The sources said Fulbright had not discussed in advance with any member of the administration and that "specifically on Cuba and Panama it does not represent the policy of the administration."

Miller said the real myths in Fulbright's speech were his assumptions that the Soviet Union has "drawn back," from aggressive policies that "the nature of the Chinese Communist threat" has changed and that more trade with Communist nations will "strengthen the foundations of peace."

Situation of Farmer Improved

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The situation of the farmer has improved in recent years, but its current status is relative, the administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said here Wednesday.

Horace Godfrey of Washington, the administrator, said farm income has increased, efficiency is tremendous, net farmer income is up and housing is the best in history.

However, he added, farm income still is out of balance with the rest of the economy, half the nation's poverty is in rural areas, farm income still averages only 55 per cent of the urban income average, and too many dilapidated farm homes dot the countryside.

Kenneth S. Bates, assistant director of the Agricultural Extension Service, said the outlook for more improvement on the farm front is good.

"We must be alert to changes and must adjust our programs and operations to new situations," he said.

He said rural leaders, working with state and federal agencies, could help improve rural living standards.

Both men spoke at the Arkansas ASCS State Conference.

Senate Wants

registration last month.

And the fight for the registration job narrowed quickly to a battle between supporters of the sheriff-collectors and backers of county assessors.

Both sides predicted eventual victory after Wednesday's House voting which left the sheriff-collectors bill 11 votes and the assessors bill 15 votes short of passage.

But neither idea was sure that it could muster enough votes for an emergency clause which requires a two-thirds majority—68 votes in the House and 24 in the Senate.

The Senate failed by one vote to put the emergency clause on its sheriff-collector bill which passed with one vote to spare. Sen. Clifton Wade of Fayetteville gave notice of reconsideration on the emergency clause to clear the way for another vote today.

Defeat of the House's sheriff-collectors bill came as a surprise to many members who entered the afternoon session convinced that the measure would pass easily.

But backers of the assessors bill stalled for nearly two hours and then disrupted strategy of their opponents by getting the sheriff-collectors bill called up first when the House finally got down to voting on registration bills.

A spokesman for the sheriff-collectors bill said his side hoped to bring up the measure after the House had voted on a county clerks bill and Benton County Rep. Hardy Croxton's bill for a permanent registration system.

The spokesman said some of the sheriff-collectors supporters were committed to vote for the clerks bill or the Croxton bill until they were disposed of and they could not vote for the sheriff-collectors bill when it came up first.

The House defeated the clerks bill the Croxton bill and toe assessors bill when they came up at the end of a long, pressure-packed afternoon.

The clerks' bill got only 30 votes and its author, Rep. Lloyd George of Yell County subsequently asked his supporters to switch to the sheriff-collectors bill.

The Croxton bill got 32 votes, a stronger showing than many expected Croxton said however, that he see little hope on passing it even if the impasse between the two annual registration bills cannot be resolved.

The House followed the Senate's lead in striking an optional party designation provision from each bill before it was considered.

Amendments to delete the provision were offered by Pulaski County Rep. Sterling Cockrill Jr. and Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalem, a vigorous proponent of party loyalty, opposed the first amendment out, after it was adopted by a convincing 60-24 vote, he remained silent while the other amendments were adopted.

The Senate struck the provision from all its bill on a motion by Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift as soon as the measures were introduced Tuesday. The party provision had lukewarm support from Gov. Orval E. Faubus. Cockrill said it would open the door to a mandatory party designation requirement.

Faubus has indicated that he will stay out of the squabble over the registrar unless his suggestions are needed to get a bill through the session.

The Legislative Council bill which apparently will pass if any bill is approved permits registration for the voter by certain relatives. It automatically qualifies poll tax payers for elections through June 30 1965, when voting under its registration provisions will begin.

Persons who do not wish to pay the poll tax can qualify for this summer's primaries during one registration period and for November's general election in another.

Unless the courts hold that a poll tax receipt is required for a legal vote in a state race, poll tax payers will not be automatically qualified after June 30, 1965.

Unless an emergency clause is attached, whatever bill passes will not take effect until 90 days after the special session ends. This will be too late for a test suit before the primary July 28.

In the absence of a court determination, non tax payers will be permitted to vote only for federal offices.

Croxton said permanent registration is the most convenient for the vote and provides the best assurance of honest elections. He was prepared for defeat, however. He had offered his bill to the Legislative Council which rejected it in favor of the annual system suggested originally by Pulaski County Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr.

Cottrell favors the assessors version of his bill and he spoke vehemently against the sheriff-collector bill.

"The sheriff's office is one of the worst places we could put this job," he said. "Sheriffs (collectors) had a right to the job when it was connected with a (poll) tax. But let's start anew."

Cottrell rebuked the Arkansas Sheriffs Association for lobbying for the sheriff-collectors bill.

"We have seen one of the greatest shows of power here," he said. "Are we to let the sheriffs run the state? If your sheriff wants to be a member of the legislature, let him run for the job. But don't let him come down here and tell you how to vote."

A delegation of sheriffs, headed by Sheriff Robert Moore of Desha County and Marlin Hawkins of Conway County, worked the legislative corridors in behalf of their bill through the day.

They also got a chance to address the House when, as part of a stalling tactic the House went into committee of the whole to hear them and Assessor J. P. Lybrand of Jefferson County.

Moore and Hawkins said sheriffs want the job because they have handled voter registration under the poll tax system. Lybrand said assessors don't want it.

Cottrell and his supporters say assessors should get the job because the registration period coincide with the period of assessing personal property and it would be convenient for the voter to assess and register in the same office.

'Freedom' Schools to Be Set Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Freedom schools will be established to educate students who boycott schools here April 6, two anti-segregation groups said Wednesday night.

The Council on Community Affairs and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee said that white parents also were asked to keep students home from school that day.

"We have definite indications that the school boycott is gaining a great deal of support in the Negro community," said Rev. Neil R. Riley, chairman of COCA's education committee.

He said white parents and students who sympathize with the Negroes' request were asked to stay out of school April 6.

Dr. William H. Townsend Jr. of COCA said he had received

Urges Visitors to Be DeVout

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, addressing himself to tourists who flock by the thousands to Rome for Easter, Wednesday urged them to become devout pilgrims too.

Speaking in his weekly general audience, Pope Paul remarked that Easter was approaching.

"We would like to urge you all to take profit of your presence in Rome holiday and penetrate even better into the spirit of this great liturgical celebration and participate even more deeply to the sentiment, the rites and the mystery of our redemption."

4th Man Is Jailed in Train Blast

MIAMI, Fla., (AP) — A fourth union member has been arrested in connection with a bombing attempt on the strikebound Florida East Coast Railway.

FBI agents arrested John Katsikos, 40, a part-time college student, father of four children and recording secretary for Local 555 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, Wednesday. Katsikos, a car inspector for Florida East Coast railway for 10 years, is charged with attempting to dynamite two of the line's tempting trains two weeks ago.

He was placed under $50,000 bond at a hearing before Commissioner Roger E. Davis. "My wife knows I'm arrested and she's doing something about it," was Katsikos' only comment.

The FBI said Katsikos was a part-time student at Barry College and the University of Miami.

The March 12 dynamiting attempt was foiled by 18-men FBI stakeout at a trestle in Indian River County. Agents, who spotted several men near the tracks, disarmed the 15-stick dynamite bomb shortly before a train arrived.

Later, agents arrested John W. Davis, 23, of Port St. Lucie and Joseph Veddere, 32, of Miami on charges of attempting to dynamite the train. Hugh Winn, 56, also of Miami, was arrested the next day on a conspiracy charge. They are free under $50,000 bonds.

Katsikos, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, was charged with attempted bombing and conspiracy.

All four of the arrested men are observing not passing unions which are not on strike but are observing nonopratig union pickett lines.

Winter Hits With an Icy Blast

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter tossed an icy blast into the aftermath of spring storms today, hoisting hard freeze warnings for Arkansas tonight. A wave of thunderstorms swept Arkansas Wednesday and the cold air moved in as they crossed the state, dropping overnight low readings to 20 degrees at Gilbert and below freezing elsewhere.

Low readings of 18 to 28 are predicted tonight, preceding slightly warmer weather Friday.

Maximum temperatures Wednesday were generally in the upper 60s and low 70s, though the mercury fell rapidly from warm mid-morning readings in the 80s to the 30s by afternoon in the northwest section. The turbulent storms brought locally high winds and hail to the state, though rainfall amounts were minor.

Temperatures dropped 20 degrees in one hour at Little Rock, where hailstones up to three quarters of an inch in diameter accompanied rain and wind.

Batesville was pelted with hailstones up to two inches in diameter.

A tornado alert issued Wednesday afternoon ended at 6 p.m. Wednesday with no tornadoes reported, although several struck in surrounding states.

When he got to help, bones were picked out of his leg. He went back to the spot where he was hit—and found the remains of a battered rabbit.

It's happened again — at Conway this time: four perfect hands in bridge.

The rarity occurred at the home of Mrs. William M. Harton. The holders of 13 spades, hearts, diamonds in order were Mrs. Charles Sttd, Mrs. Mable Sherin, Miss Eva Franklin and Mrs. James Flanagan.

The women verified that the cards were not new and that they had been shuffled and cut prior to the deal. Two other tables of bridge were in progress at the time of the incident.

Newport residents have expressed their appreciation of art in a concrete way. During the visit of the Arkansas Arts Center's Artmobile to the community, the attendance passed all previous records for a single day's attendance at any city in Arkansas.

The count was made by Edwin Brewer, curator of the artmobile — 1,250 persons.

Series of Parties

For Ruth Ann Mohon

Miss Ruth Ann Mohon, bride-elect of Paul E. Cobb, has been honored recently with several nice entertainments. A miscellaneous bridal shower was held for her in the little courtroom at the Hempstead County Court-house with Mesdames Jimmie Griffin, Frank Ramsey, Victor Cobb, Leland Warmack, and Henry Taylor as co-hostesses.

A clever utility corsage was pinned at the shoulder of the bride-elect. Games were played by the group under the direction of Mrs. Griffin. Many useful gifts were received by the honoree.

Punch and cookies were served to the 30 guests present. Those from out of town were Mrs. Jesse Griffin, Mrs. Neil Meeks, and Mrs. Bobby Taylor, all of Prescott.

Miss Mohon was honored with a bridal shower also by Miss Linda Gibson. At the party, held in the Gibson home, the gifts were placed in a useful clothes basket.

Following the opening of the gifts, refreshments were served to the guests. Two out-of-town friends at the entertainment were Miss Kay Buffington of Camden and Miss Jaylene Dancy of Gravette.

Members of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church showered the popular bride-elect with gifts at a party held in the WOW Hall. Those acting as hostesses were Mesdames Raymond Byers, James Rowe, Byron Clark, Herbert Shirley, Reta Anderson, Virginia Cunningham, Lyle Allen, Herbert Hartsfield, Bill Sanders, Wade Warren, Ted Purdie, Leonard Sanders, Jewell Still, and Miss Gwen Frith.

The guests were greeted at the door by Misses Nellie Church-

Engagement Announced

Miss Mary Lou Park

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Leonard Park of Hope, Arkansas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Lou to Bennie Charles Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Newman Downing of Hutto, Texas.

The bride-elect is a senior at T.C.U. where she is majoring in secondary education and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The groom to be will graduate from T.C.U. in August where he will receive his B. B. A. in accounting. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi, and has served his fraternity as treasurer.

The wedding will be an event of August 30 in the First Presbyterian Church of Hope, Ark.

well and Gail Hartsfield, who were dressed in rustic costumes to set the stage for the skit, "A Hillbilly Wedding," given for entertainment.

Following the skit the bride-to-be, her mother, Mrs. R. E. Mohon, her grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, and Mrs. Jim Cobb, mother of the future bridegroom, were seated at the bride's table, where the many lovely and useful gifts were opened. They were attractively displayed on a table centered with Barbie and Ken dolls arranged as if for a wedding.

Punch and cookies were served by the hostesses to the 40 guests. Miss Kay Buffington of Camden was the only guest from out of town.

Mr. L. G. Thomas, president of the Board of Business Girls Inn at Shreveport, honored Miss Mohon and Miss Judy Hammer of Minden, La., with a miscellaneous shower at the Thomas home.

Beautiful arrangements of spring flowers were seen throughout at vantage points. Before the gifts were opened, the honorees participated in humorous contest and Miss Mohon was the winner.

The 20 guest made rice bags for the bride-elect. They were served dainty party sandwiches, cookies, nuts, mints, and punch from a table centered with a styro-foam heart covered with pink satin.

Centerville HD Club
The Centerville Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, March 18 in the home of Mrs. Hugh Bearden. The meeting was the poem which Mrs. Snellgrove read to complete the program. Cookies and coffee or colds drinks were served for refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sid Skinner in April.

Showers Honors Recent Bride
Mrs. Jackie White, a recent bride, was feted with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening, March 19 in the home of Mrs. Billy Joe Butler on Lewisville Road. The honoree and Mrs. Dorsey White, mother of the bridegroom, were each presented a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Carter Russell directed several games, after which Mrs. White opened her many lovely and useful gifts.

The refreshment table was covered with a pink net cloth and centered with an arrangement of dogwood flanked on either side by tall white tapers. Other floral arrangements were seen at focal points in the living room and den. Mrs. Charles Butler presided at the punch bowl and Miss Belinda Jo Butler served the white individual cakes embossed with pink roses. Others dispensing hospitalities were Mrs. Carter Russell and little Miss Carolyn Sue Butler.

Coming and Going
Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Williams and sons, Mitch and Stuart, Tahoka, Tex., will arrive Friday to spend the Easter weekend with Mrs. A. K. Hollaway and Mrs. Jett Williams.

Misses Sonya and Suzanne Sommerville, of Dallas and Waco, respectively will be Easter guests of Mrs. Frances Sue Sommerville.

Mrs. John Robins returned to her home in Helena Sunday after visiting sons Leo and Raymond and their families.

Decorations Out Due to Nazi Past

BOON, Germany (AP) — A high Bonn decoration, awarded to a convicted German war criminal, Wednesday, was ordered taken from him after Communist press reports had pointed out his Nazi past.

Former D Maj. Heinrich Buettelisch had been sentenced by an American war crimes court to six years in prison for using concentration camp inmates as slave laborers. He received the Grand Cross of the Federal Order of Merit last month for helping rebuild German industry.

Then reports of his background were published in the East German Communist press.

West German President Heinrich Lübke, after learning of Buettelisch's wartime record, ordered that the decoration be taken from him.

Touring Golfers Open Stand at Wilmington

By KEN ALTYA
Associated Press Sports Writer

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—The touring golfers showing signs of easing the grip of the game's Big Three opened a two-week stand in North Carolina today with the start of the $200,000 Azalea Open Tournament.

After the four-day 72-hole test over the sandy 6,744 yards of the par 72 Cape Fear Country Club here they move to Greensboro for the $35,000 Greater Greensboro Open last stop before the Masters at Augusta.

As the Azalea tournament field of 160 begins the first of four assaults on the Cape Fear course, an unprecedented streak of non-repeat winners is intact.

It's been five months and 14 tournaments on the major circuit since the same man won twice and he wasn't a member of the big three composed of Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Mason Rudolph, who won at New Orleans early this month, scored at Fresno, Calif. last Oct. 27. Since the 14 tournaments, 11 this year, have produced 14 different winners.

At this time last year, 11 tournaments had been played in the same order as this year, and there were nine winners—Palmer and eight others. He won three winter tournaments last year. To date this year he's been second and twice tied for third in his best finishes.

In 11 tournaments this year, 44 men have finished in the top five at least once with only four making as many as three such finishes. A year ago for the same tournaments 40 had fired five finishes, eight making it at least three times.

Thus, it appears, that the pack may be in the process of breaking away from the domination of the Big Three, none of whom is entered here. Billy Casper, No. 5 money winner this year after picking up a $7,500 check at Miami, Fla. last Sunday, and Tony Le-ma, Tommy Jacobs and Bruce Devlin are the 1964 winners in the Azalea field.

Olympic Chief to Undergo Surgery

CHICAGO (AP)—K. L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic committee, is to undergo surgery today in Wesley Memorial Hospital.

Doctors said his general health was good after several days of tests and observation. He is expected to be hospitalized two weeks.

Wilson minimized his ailment and said he was looking forward to the Olympic Games in October in Tokyo.

Plenty of Sports on Television

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—T.V. Fanatic, the guy who just loves to watch as many sports events as possible, is going to have himself a field day next fall.

In late September and early October he'll have his pick of major league baseball, the Davis Cup tennis matches, the Olympics, professional and college football games, boxing bouts, wrestling matches, thoroughbred racing and professional hockey, basketball and bowling.

He are the 'sounds that might come from the TV set when Mr. Fanatic is in his best form (switch indicates our man has turned to another channel):

"Gubner heaves a long one." Switch.

"It's caught by Gifford on the 15, down to the 10, and the 5 and into the end zone for —." Switch.

"Goal by Bobby Hull at 2:07 of the third period. This program is being brought to you by the makers of —." Switch.

"Strikeouts by Sandy Koufax. The Doerger ace has now fanned 15 Philadelphia —." Switch.

"Eagles have the ball on the 20. They come out of the huddle! Sonny —." Switch.

"Liston lands a hard right to the jaw and —." Switch.

"They're off. It's Northern Dancer taking the lead followed by —." Switch.

"Tom O'Hara —." Switch.

"Chamberlain under the basket. He shoots and —." Switch.

"It's blocked by Glenn Hall, who's down on the ice. The rebound comes out to —." Switch.

"Y.A. Tittle —." Switch.

"Sammartino has a headlock hold on —." Switch.

"Chuck McKinley. The American sends up a lob and Emerson —." Switch.

"His a long drive to center. Mantle goes back, back back —." Switch.

"To Minnesota's five-yard line. The Buckeyes have moved 65-yards in seven —." Switch.

"Rounds are about even and Liston is sitting on his stool. The referee and doctor come in to the —." Switch.

"Pocket and Don Carter has himself another strike." And then, horror of horrors, the main TV tube goes kaput, and our man will have to buy a newspaper to find out how it all came out.

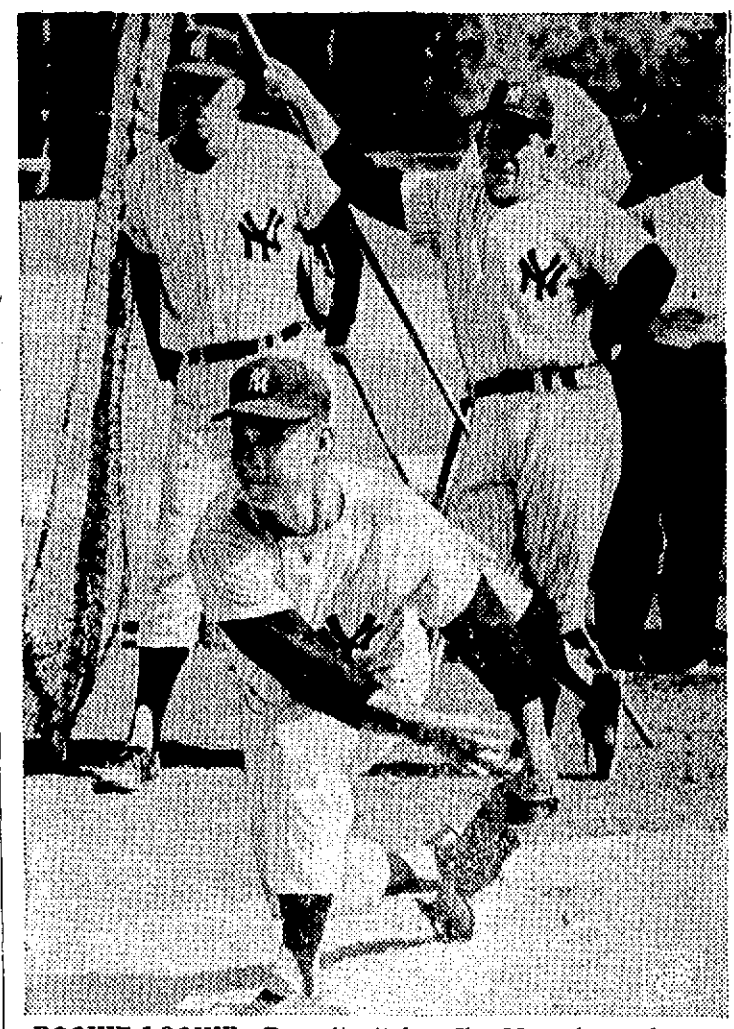

Cuban Feels He Can Lead the League

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—"Yes, I feel I can lead the league one time, and it might happen this year or next year."

This was the reaction of Tony Gonzalez of the Philadelphia Phillies when he was told that General Manager John Quinn said he was a potential batting champion.

"You never know what's going to happen," added Gonzalez, "so just put me down for one time, please."

"I think I'm a much better hitter than when I first came to Philadelphia and I feel so comfortable at the plate that I believe I can win a title."

Teacher Has Turned Into a Hurler

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Left-hander Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox, American League Rookie of the Year, was headed for a school teaching job when he suddenly turned from an absent-minded professor into the pitching sensation of the 1963 season.

"I had forgotten my fast ball," Peters explained. "I had been working so hard on a curve ball and a slider in the minor that I changed my motion a little. I not only lost my fastball—I began to forget how hard I could throw."

As cutdown day drew near Peters had an 0-2 record and was in jeopardy of being sent back to the minors for the fifth time with his options all used.

"It's hard to say now just what I would have done," said Peters. "I might have quit. It all depends on what had happened. If someone else picked me up, I probably would have finished the year with them and then decided. But for a while I sure felt I'd be teaching school."

"Then more or less everything came together," Peters continued. "I got a chance to start against Kansas City I won. That helped. I started throwing hard and now I had the curve and slider to go with it and everything went good."

Things went so good that from July 11 to August 29 Peters won 11 straight games. The 26-year-old southpaw finished the season with a 19-8 record and a league-leading 2.33 earned run average. Then he topped it all off by edging teammate Pete Ward for rookie laurels.

Peters was slowed somewhat this spring by an inflamed tendon but now is back in form, working once again on the methodical motion that apparently baffles batters. He has sort of a hesitation stop just before he fires toward the plate that gives him an awkward-appearing style.

Last Minute Toss Keeps Lakers Alive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Lakers still are alive in the Western Division semifinal playoffs in the National Basketball Association.

Elgin Baylor's shot from 20 feet out with just one second on the clock gave the Lakers a 107-105 victory over the St. Louis Hawks Wednesday night and forced a fourth game in Los Angeles Saturday in the best-of-5 series. The Hawks had won the first two games at St. Louis last weekend.

The Cincinnati Royals, back on their home court, whipped the Philadelphia 76ers in the other playoff game Wednesday and took a 2-1 head in the Eastern Division semifinals. The fourth game is scheduled Saturday at Philadelphia.

The home court advantage, which has stood up in all six playoff games so far, nearly failed the Lakers and the Hawks overcame a 16-point deficit and tied the score at 105-105 in the last minute on a Mike Farmer steal and basket.

The Lakers lost possession on the pass-in but Charlie Vaughn's shot was blocked and the Laker got the ball again with 11 seconds left. After a time out Baylor got the ball and waited until the last second before getting off his winning shot. Baylor finished with 23 points, compared to 39 for Jerry West who sparked the Lakers to an early 31-15 lead.

Bob Pettit, with 2, and Zelmo Beaty, with 22, topped the Hawks.

An 11-point burst that helped build a 21-point lead in the second quarter sparked the Royals over the 76ers.

Oscar Robertson, with 28 points, led the Royals. Chet Walker topped Philadelphia 2. Veteran Johnny Kerr of the 76ers suffered a cut over the right eye that required three stitches. He remained in the game, however, and scored 19 points.

Pro Boxing Probe Will Continue

By JOHN KOEIG JR.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators continue today their probe of professional boxing spurred by reports of underworld figures still hanging around dethroned world heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

Scheduled to appear before the Senate antitrust subcommittee were Gordon B. Davidson, attorney for the Louisville, Ky., citizens group that sponsors Cassius Clay, and Bob Nilon, brother of Jack Nilon, Liston's business adviser.

Jack Nilon told the hearing Wednesday that he asked no questions when Liston said he wanted to sign over valuable stock to Sam Margolis, a Philadelphia vending machine operator and close friend of Liston for years.

Margolis, according to previous testimony, once owned an apartment house jointly with racketeer Frank (Blinky) Palermo.

Nilon said he thought Margolis was entitled to the stock for setting up a deal for promoting Liston's fights. He said that under the arrangement between Margolis and Liston the fighter was to receive a half interest in their joint firm. However, Liston apparently signed over more than half of his shares to Margolis without any compensation.

Nilon said Liston told him that was the way he wanted it.

Nilon also told the committee that Joe Pep Barone, an underworld figure who once managed Liston, was sent for by fighter before his bout with Clay.

Davidson wound up Wednesday's session before the committee by outlining the contract under which Clay operates with the Louisville group backing him.

Davidson said that as a result of the revelations of hearings held by the Senate subcommittee in 1960, which disclosed that Liston's contract at that time was controlled by underworld figures, the Louisville group was determine to get Clay—home town boy who had just won an Olympic boxing championship—off to a good start as a professional.

Canadian Horse Is Favored

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Canadian-born Northern Dancer became a strong favorite today to win the $100,000 Florida Derby April 4 while Dandy K. moved up on the basis of its performance in the Fountain of Youth Stakes.

Dandy K., winner of his last race at Gulfstream Park at 1 1-16 miles, was last for one-quarter mile in the Fountain of Youth Wednesday and was eighth after six furlongs. He put on a blistering run through the stretch to beat Roman Brother by one length.

It was Dandy K.'s second straight win at this distance after he ran a dead heat for fifth with Roman Brother in the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah March 3.

On that day each carried 122 pounds. In the Fountain of Youth Roman Brother carried 122, while Dandy K. had only 112.

The victory was worth $11,075 to Cecil Carmine, owner of Dandy K. who had won only $10,230 in 12 previous starts.

Roman Brother, out of the money only once in 11 races, earned $3,500 second money and has won $274,8159

Baker Case Is on Its Final Lap

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bobby Baker probe may finally be heading into eclipse. Democrats have mowed down Republican demands for additional major witnesses and an accountant has abandoned his charge of income tax forgery.

The Democrats on the Senate Rules Committee overpowered the GOP minority Monday and refused to call White House aide Walter Jenkins, Democratic fund raiser Matt McCloskey and others to testify.

Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said their testimony would be irrelevant or repetitive of what has been heard already in its investigation of Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

The committee is exploring whether conflict of interest was involved as Baker, while a $19,600 a year Senate official, accumulated a fortune he estimated in excess of $2 million. The Democrats contend they have heard enough evidence already to provide the basis for a report to the Senate.

Jordan called the committee to another closed door meeting today to consider one by one witnesses the Republicans want called before the inquiry ends.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., predicted to a news conference that "the result will be the same whitewash."

"And from the same bucket," Scott added in bitter tones.

He said the Republicans, outnumbered 6 to 3 on the committee, had been "chopped down" in Monday's voting and he thought the Democrats still were "honing the ax."

Milton L. Hautt, an accountant who charged last week that someone had forged his signature on some of Baker's income tax returns, visited the committee staff and abandoned the allegation. He told newsmen later the word "forgery" had been "an unfortunate choice of words" in the sworn statement he had given the senators.

All that was involved, Hautt said, was a "very minor discrepancy" which resulted in Baker collecting an additional $11.2 in a $4,420.20 income tax refund for 1961. Hautt said he had talked with Edward Bennett Williams, Baker's counsel, and had been given a copy of the original returns he prepared and signed for Baker.

He said that as he understands it, Baker later thought of another deduction, rewrote the tax return and that someone signed Hautt's name to it but evidently had made no effort to make the handwriting resemble Hautt's.

Hautt said he would have signed the new figures had he been asked to do so.

Mrs. Johnson to Look at Moon Flight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson flies south today to get a close look at preparations for America's man-on-the-moon project.

At the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala., the President's wife was to do a hard hat and watch from a protective bunker as rocket engines are test fired.

Ready for her inspection were exhibits of everything from space suits and wind tunnels to a giant mock-up of the tail section of the Saturn V. That's the rocket whose five F1 engines will produce 7.5-million pounds of thrust to help get a man to the moon before 1970.

The dawn-to-dusk, jam-packed schedule is a grueling one for the 51-year-old First Lady. It includes three speeches.

Mrs. Johnson reserved a noon time respite period, though, for a very personal reunion with 37 of her Alabama kinfolk. The First Lady's mother and father, the late Thomas Jefferson and Minnie Pattillo Taylor, were born in Autauga County, Ala. She invited those of her relatives who remain in the area to join her for a brief visit.

He had given the senators.

—WHY DOES HER, ETC.

by DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Dix: I'm engaged to a wonderful man. He's 24 and I'm 22. My big problem is that my fiancé seems to keep putting our wedding date off. We've been engaged for eight months. Each time I suggest setting a wedding date, he seems to want to defer it and says he isn't sure marriage is for everyone. But we get on wonderfully. He says he doesn't love anyone else. I don't understand it. Why are men often so reluctant to set wedding dates?

D. L. S.

Dear D. L. S.: I may be able to answer this question for a lot of girls but first I'd like to ask one.

Why should a man marry, anyway? He rarely marries for economic security. Rather, he expects to furnish security for his wife.

Just how many men marry for social prestige? To get away from home? Very few.

So why does the average young man marry? Nine out of 10 times a man marries for companionship. He is lonely and thinks he is missing out on life by not having his own home and family.

He doesn't always realize these things, though, until he falls in love. Psychologically, we might say when he meets his complement.

Very few women realize what a hard time they'd have getting married if Mother Nature didn't introduce romantic love into the picture. Without romantic love women would have a rather hard time persuading men that marriage is what they really want.

If you were able to listen to a midnight talk session among bachelors you'd probably wonder why men should marry. The independent male has an uncanny sense of what he loses by marriage. His independence in making decisions choosing friends and so on. And yet 85 per cent of our American men are married.

The tragedies of most marriages is that women do not ask themselves why men marry. It's true a man gets a deep-satisfaction out of marriage, such as having a home and family.

On the other hand, men get less than they put into marriage. The male sex is composed of individualists. As a sex, the female is the more social-minded of the two.

Most women don't seriously deplete sacrificing their individualities in the process of marriage. For them, marriage is merging of two personalities. They long to be absorbed into a stronger personality.

This is not true of the male. Once the first blush of romance is over, the man reverts to being himself again. It's not that he doesn't love his young wife. Rather, a man rarely needs to lose himself in another.

As a rule, a man has no objections to sharing his paycheck with his wife. He expects for marriage to assume responsibility, and divide his take-home pay with his wife. But what most women haven't the faintest idea about is a man's reluctance to share himself. I don't mean that he wants to withdraw. Rather, he wants to be an individual, not as part of a corporation.

Once she marries, the average woman assumes she has a share in her husband's paycheck. But that's not all. She assumes that all his emotions, his thoughts, even his very soul belongs to her.

We all know how hard women try to make over their husbands, how they strive to eradicate what they see as faults, how they try to mold their men into something other than they are.

It's a rare woman who realizes that she does not own her husband body, mind, and soul, or who realizes she's insulting her husband by implying he's inadequate, but that she would soon set him straight.

Why is your fiancé reluctant about setting a firm date for your marriage? The chances are, he's seen this happening between other couples. My suggestion is this: Assure him you want him for his companionship, and that after marrying you, he'll still be an individual.

Tomorrow: A psychiatrist's advice to a young bride.

MacArthur Continues to Improve

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen Douglas MacArthur continues to draw on reservoirs of strength in his recovery from the life-endangering crisis that demanded major surgery Monday.

Brig. Gen. Henry S. Murphey, commandant of Walter Reed Army Medical Center, described the general's condition Wednesday night as critical. But he said the general was doing satisfactorily, and was improved over his extremely critical condition of Monday.

"He is still seriously ill," Gen. Murphey said in response to newsmen's written question. The 84-year-old general was operated on March 6 for removal of his gallbladder. Then 17 days later he suffered severe internal bleeding and required emergency six-hour surgery from which he is now recovering. The second crisis was not related to the earlier surgery, doctors said.

Personal messages continue to pour in. President Johnson has telephoned several times to express concern.

Personal messages have also been received from the emperor of Japan; the prime minister and foreign minister of Japan; the presidents of the Philippines, Nationalist China and South Korea; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower; other notable persons and thousands of citizens.

The general took small quantities of liquid food — broth and milk — at frequent intervals Wednesday. He speaks — a few words at a time — with his family and the medical staff.

Bows, Arrows Used in the India Fight

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Primitive Christian tribesmen armed with bows and arrows to fight were reported joining in the religious rioting in eastern India as the official death toll approached 300.

Christian Adivasi tribesmen in Bihar State, angered over reports of Moslem terror against Christian tribesmen in neighboring East Pakistan, attacked Moslems and burned two villages.

Chief Minister K. B. Sahay told the Bihar Legislature large numbers of Adivasis are roaming the area near the Bihar-Orissa State borders and have announced plans to attack two more villages.

Claiming the army is now in full control of major towns in Bihar State, Sahay gave the first public inkling of the gravity of Hindu-Moslem rioting last weekend in the steel town of Jamshedpur.

He said 171 persons—164 of them Moslems—were killed. Police bullets killed seven he said. Sahay's death figure was 101 above any official figure issued previously.

Army troops, flown into eastern India by the thousands, were reported able to prevent any major outbreaks of violence in larger cities and towns, including the Orissa State steel center of Rourkela, where more than 60 persons have been killed.

Adivasi means aborigine, and the tribesmen have continually resisted the attempts of the British colonial administration and of the Indian government to civilize them.

Allying Prime Minister Nehru scheduled a nationwide radio appeal for religious harmony tonight.

Finds in Europe He's Rarely Angry But When in the U.S. He Is Mad All the Time

By HA LBOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm going to postpone fat and death and boredom as long as possible," said Gore Vidal, who has a mind that explodes with ideas like a pan full of popcorn.

"Most people are subjective narcissists. They don't see themselves falling apart. I'm an objective narcissist. I can see what happens to myself."

Vidal is the grandson of the late blind Sen. Thomas P. Gore. Literature is his profession, but politics and social criticism are his hobbies.

If he isn't America's angriest young man, he certainly is one of its most controversial — by choice.

"In Europe I'm rarely angry," he said. "Here I'm mad all the time. There's always something happening to keep me flowing with adrenalin."

Vidal, who never bothered going to college, started writing at 14. Now 38, tall and darkly handsome, he has turned out some fine novels, three Broadway plays, eight screen scripts, 30 television plays, a book of essays, a collection of short stories and innumerable critical articles.

He also found time in 1960 to run as a Democrat for Congress — and lose — from President Franklin D. Roosevelt's old mid-Hudson River district, a Republican haunt.

Vidal said he hopes to settle down now to writing novels and criticizing his fellow man, although he is toying with the thought of running for office again — perhaps on the New York Democratic statewide ticket.

A quirky man, he remarked of himself:

"I have a horror of putting on weight. I'm 6 feet, but if I get much over 160 pounds I hole up in a hotel room and starve myself."

"I'm a physical coward, very nervous about death, have a terror of airplanes. But I try to compensate for my physical cowardice by moral bravery."

"I am obsessed by the idea of justice, but I have no absolute idea what it is. It's easier to define it by what it is not. I keep wrestling with illusion and reality."

"People in this country, including politicians and businessmen, are completely unrealistic."

"The businessman who opposes government pump-priming is the biggest beneficiary of it. Politicians praise thrift, but thrift has been out of date for 50 years."

"Politics is improvisation," he said. "A writer has to say what he thinks. A politician of ten, for good or bad reasons, has to disguise what he thinks."

"Many American writers are stupider than their readers because they don't read much themselves—as European writers do. If they read more good books, they'd write fewer bad books," Vidal said.

"My favorite living American writer? There's none I admire enormously. I can't think of anybody."

He said he is a former Democrat and that he switched to the Republican Party in the early 1950s "because it's the only possible answer to all the problems confronting Arkansas as a one-party state."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson are flying to their Texas ranch this afternoon to spend the Easter weekend, the White House announced today.

Press secretary George Reedy said he was unable to announce a definite time for the Johnsons' return to Washington.

Their ranch is near Johnson City, 65 miles west of Austin.

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — George McClure, 57, of Gurdon, a sawmill worker, was killed Wednesday night when his car collided with a tractor-trailer rig on Arkansas 67 one mile south of Arkadelphia. Maynard Heller of Wilmington, Ohio, driver of the truck was not hurt.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Poultry markets:

Delmarva: Live prices continued to decline nearly 1/2 cent. Demand light and inactive. At farm prices 13.8 to 14.3 cents, mostly 14 to 14.4 cents per pound.

East Texas: Market steady. Offerings ample for fair demand. At farm prices ranged 13.50 to 14.70 cents or pound.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas producers started 5,823,000 broiler chicks during the week ended March 21, the Crop Reporting Service said today, about the same as the figure for the previous week.

Of total placements in the state, 5,264,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 559,000 were shipped in.

There were 469,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, the assistant House Republican leader, defended the Central Intelligence Agency today against charges that it has been infiltrated by Soviet intelligence.

In a House speech, Arends said these accusations were wild and based on half-truths, distortions, and complete untruths.

Arends, who called the CIA "the finest intelligence agency in the world today," focused his remarks on some recent articles in the New York Journal American.

Arends called the series "irresponsible" and said his information as a member of the House Armed Services subcommittee on the CIA indicated that charges in the series were incorrect.

The series deals with Michael Goleniewski, a Polish defector who was high in the ranks of the Soviet secret service.

In the series, Goleniewski is quoted as telling U.S. security agents that the Soviet secret spy apparatus has infiltrated every U.S. agency except the FBI, that the CIA had somehow siphoned $12 million of its own funds into Communist hands in Vienna, and that Stalinists in CIA have blocked his efforts to expose the situation.

Silver Dollar Rush Leaves Only Old Ones

By ADREN COOPER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government offers one-dollar packets of silver dust to the public today in an anticlimax to the great silver dollar rush of 1964.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon announced Wednesday that the government will no longer exchange its silver dollars for paper money.

After another run by coin collectors and dealers, the Treasury supply of cartwheels was down to approximately 3 million. Most of these are old coins and almost all are worth more than face value to collectors. A decision will be made later—probably by Congress—on their disposition.

To comply with a 1963 law the Treasury will give an unmarked envelope containing a dollar's worth of silver granules to anyone who presents a dollar bill. The paper money must be presented in person to a government assay office in New York or San Francisco.

The Treasury's $1.7-billion worth of silver is expected to last for years. Industrial users have been making intermittent purchases from the government since last September.

Most of the Treasury's silver is in bars worth $1,000 or more. By stopping the outflow of silver dollars the Treasury departed from its usual policy of ignoring the numismatic value—the price set by collectors—of a coin.

A Treasury spokesman said the remaining 3 million include the "Morgan" type coin minted at Carson City, Nev., in 1879. One dealer said he was willing to pay up to $40,000 for a $1,000 bag of Morgan coins.

Dillon said these coins "can not be equitably distributed" if the Treasury continues its release policy. The coins would be entirely absorbed by dealers and collectors, he said.

The Treasury closed its door shut to silver dollar seekers at 11 a. m. Wednesday after an estimated $250,000 worth of cartwheels were sold.

Million 1/2 Dollars Released

BOSTON (AP) — One million John F. Kennedy half-dollars were placed in circulation in New England Tuesday and Federal Reserve officials said they were snatched up as fast as bank tellers could distribute them.

At the First National Bank in Boston, 10 tellers were given 400 coins each and within 20 minutes all 4,000 were gone, on a one to a customer basis.

Race Trouble Continues at Jacksonville

By DON MCKEE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., (AP)—Violence in the form of a gang attack and fire bombs plagued this port city even as white and Negro leaders groped for a way out of the 4-day-old racial crisis.

A white man, attacked by a gang of Negro teen-agers, was injured seriously Wednesday, police said. A fire bomb ruined a 1955 model auto on a used car lot Wednesday night.

Incessant false alarms kept firemen on the run for the third night but rock-throwing and other vandalism subsided.

Hospitalized with a jagged 3-inch laceration of the forehead was Lester Phillips, 53. He told police he was struck by a brick during an attack by 12 to 15 Negroes.

Backed by Mayor Haydon Burns, a biracial group quickly went into action to restore peace and resolve segregation issues following three days and nights of scattered shootings, a killing, numerous injuries and mounting property damage from fires and rocks.

"I hope we will be able to get our group together," said Robert Milius, department store executive and a leader in the biracial committee—sanctioned by the mayor but not officially linked to the city government.

A leader of Negro demonstrations warned of large scale activities unless progress in desegregation is made.

"If Jacksonville doesn't do something today or tomorrow, this town's going to turn to mass demonstrations," said Rutledge Pearson, president of the state and local chapters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Exclude from the biracial group, Pearson said he did not know whether the NAACP would participate in the peace effort. He said he had no plans to halt demonstrations which have been aimed at places of public accommodation.

Milius and other members of the committee were optimistic, however.

Color Line Is Hit by Pentagon

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pentagon-ordered survey showed there was housing discrimination against Negro servicemen near 90 per cent of the military bases in the United States, it was disclosed today.

Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, told The Associated Press that housing "clearly is the most unyielding" of the various forms of racial bias facing Negroes in uniform.

This discrimination, Fitt said, exists in Northern base areas as well as in the South. Only 31 of 305 base studied were given a clean bill on this count. Fitt declined to name the 31.

The Pentagon's civil rights chief indicated that by the process of "negotiation and conciliation" base commanders had made progress in easing discrimination against Negro servicemen and their families in off-base schooling, transportation and use of such public facilities as parks and libraries.

"I'm sure that since last fall commanders have secured changes on behalf of their men," Fitt said.

Among other things, base commanders had been told to report whether the "treatment accorded Negro military personnel by the local police (is) in any way different from that accorded white military personnel."

The findings, Fitt said: "No case of significant difference in law enforcement between white and Negro servicemen."

The survey was ordered last September. Its basic objective, the Pentagon said at the time, was to obtain "necessary information for the formulation of future policy."

A total of 62 base areas turned up with such good records in the first reports made last November that the commanders were relieved of the responsibility of reporting again on May 1.

Although the names of these bases were not disclosed, Fitt said some were in Texas and Oklahoma.

Newlyweds Win Release From Jury

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) —A newspaper clipping and a Bible verse got a newlywed excused from a week's jury duty Tuesday.

Clyde Nathan Williams approached Judge Arnold Krichamer and handed him two pieces of paper.

One was a news clipping telling of his marriage to Miss Glenda Cone March 7.

On the other piece of paper, "The Rape of Europe" by a Flemish artist named Heinz, and a work of the Flemish school of Utrecht.

The growth of the mold, Itkin added, is encouraged by the prolonged use of antibiotics and steroid drugs used to treat asthma and arthritis.

Itkin also said that the presence of the mold within one's body does not necessarily mean the person is susceptible to asthma. Only those who are sensitive—or allergic—to the mold will probably get asthma.

The mold itself doesn't generally cause disease — although it has been blamed for thrush, a childhood ailment encouraged by lack of vitamins. Thrush is no longer common in the United States and usually, said Itkin, the mold grows quite harmlessly.

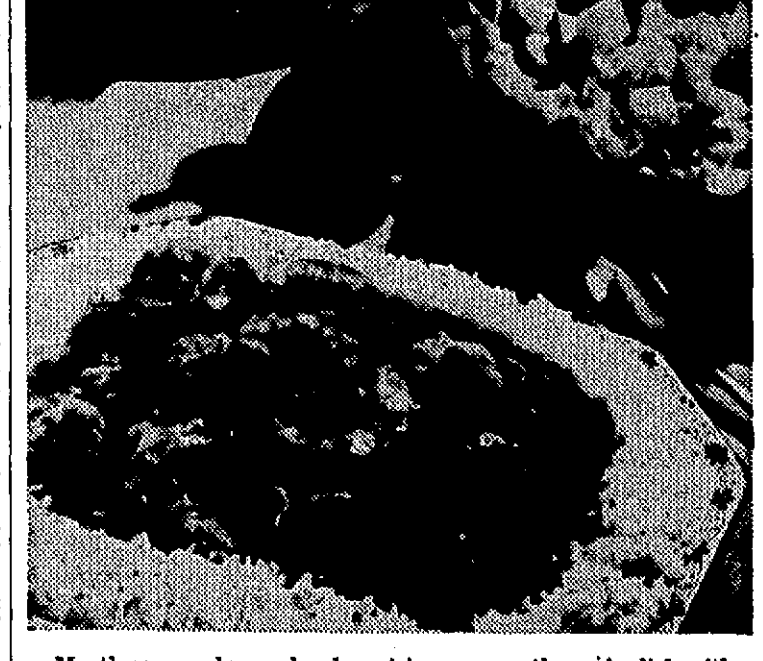

The presence of the mold, Itkin said, has been known for many years, "but it was overlooked by practically every allergist in the world as a possible cause for asthma."

Scientists at National Jewish discovered almost accidentally the connection between the mold and asthma — a respiratory disease. There are about four million asthma sufferers in the United States.

Itkin said that an Israeli patient was brought to the hospital suffering from asthma of an apparently unknown origin. About the same time Itkin had learned that the incidence of the mold was very high in Israel. Itkin tested the patient with an extract of the mold and found that it produced a severe allergic reaction.

During a study program that followed, 81 patients were tested with the same extract. The results, Itkin said, proved that sensitivity to the mold was a frequent cause of asthma.

Sauce a Creole Dish with Canned Condensed Tomato Soup

Meatless meals and closer budgets occupy many home-makers' minds during this month of March. With income tax forms being filled out, practicality is the keynote in meal planning. It's so easy, however, to produce colorful, appealing meals without denting the food allowance. Canned condensed soups are the answer.

Perfect as cooking ingredients and sauces, canned condensed soups give a seasoned start to your casserole or skillet dishes. What homemaker doesn't know the merits of rosy, flavor-packed canned condensed tomato soup? It's a natural to start a shrimp creole dish like this one.

Add cooked green beans to this Contemporary Shrimp Creole for added color and taste appeal. Serve it surrounded with fluffy rice on your prettiest platter.

Accompany the main dish with a tangy salad of pineapple chunks and celery tossed with a cream cheese dressing.

Mold May Be Cause of Asthma

By STEPHEN M. AUG

DENVER, Colo. (AP) —A yeast-like mold that may be growing inside half the world's inhabitants has been found to cause asthma, an allergy specialist said today.

Dr. Irving H. Itkin, head of allergy and asthma research at National Jewish Hospital, said in an interview that the mold, known as Candida albicans, grows in any warm, moist area — and it is often found in a human's mouth or throat.

"Possibly half the human population carries it around," Itkin said.

The growth of the mold, Itkin added, is encouraged by the prolonged use of antibiotics and steroid drugs used to treat asthma and arthritis.

Itkin also said that the presence of the mold within one's body does not necessarily mean the person is susceptible to asthma. Only those who are sensitive—or allergic—to the mold will probably get asthma.

California GOPs Want Scranton

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If opinions of California Republican colleagues are heeded, Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania should prepare to plunge into the 1964 presidential race.

Scranton came from a dark horse position Sunday to win a third ballot nomination at a mock national Republican convention staged by the California College Republicans.

The group, which split last year from the more conservative California Young Republicans, deadlocked on the first two ballots among Sen. Barry Goldwater, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

GM's Big Spending Is Stimulus

FREMONT, Calif. (AP)—The $2-billion capital spending program of General Motors Corp. for the next two years shaped up today as a force in the nation's economic future.

Big GM, world's largest manufacturing corporation, will spend the $2 billion on new plants and equipment in this country and abroad.

Fifty thousand new jobs in the United States will be one result of the program, General Motors said.

The new factory and plant expansion plans, announced by GM Wednesday, embrace more than two dozen cities in the nation.

In addition, General Motors will spend $1.2 billion on special tools to make its cars, trucks and other products.

GM's investment in the future, Chairman Frederic G. Donner said in a speech at Fremont, is geared to an anticipated automobile market of 10-million sales a year by 1970.

There was no immediate comment from the White House on government borrowing seems sure to increase this year, still further swelling demand for funds.

the GM announcement. President Johnson in the past has expressed hope for industrial expansion that would stimulate continuing growth in national production and create new jobs.

The present tax cut was backed by the Johnson administration and the late President John F. Kennedy as a means toward this.

Michigan Gov. George W. Romney hailed GM's announcement as an "expression of faith" in Michigan.

One-half to 55 per cent of the $2 billion is to be spent in Michigan. Romney said it would mean 25,000 more jobs for Michigan, where unemployment has been a problem.

Two cities, Kalamazoo and Tecumseh, will get General Motors plants for the first time. GM facilities in 10 other Michigan cities will be expanded.

Disaster Is California's Nick-Name

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Natural disasters? Southern California has had its share, and more, of late.

You name it: Reservoir collapse, flooding, wind, fires and mud.

One observer, pondering recent catastrophes, asked: "Is this really the land of milk and honey—or of ashes and mud?"

Take the early afternoon of last Dec. 14, a Saturday. The radio began broadcasting bulletins that residents below the Baldwin Hills Reservoir should get out. The reservoir had sprung a leak.

At 3:38 p.m. it broke.

Three hundred million gallons of water cascaded down on houses, apartments, cars and people in a pleasant, comparatively new part of town.

Five lives were lost. Several homes were swept away. Some were reduced to kindling. Firemen removed about 2,000 people—in some cases with life-lines, ladders or helicopters.

Damage was estimated at $13 million—about $1 million of it to automobiles. Cleanup and repair are still going on.

While this unwanted gush soaked one area, one of Los Angeles' worst droughts continued, drying brush to tinder.

A week ago Sunday night, warm winds off the Mojave Desert howled through canyons at 90 miles per hour, blew down thousands of trees and unroofed several houses.

The winds broke scores of windows, caused power failures lasting hours and toppled a tree that killed a man. An agency representing 380 insurance companies estimated the windstorm damaged over 11,000 dwellings and business buildings at a loss of more than $2 million.

That was only part of it. The wind knocked down power lines whose sparks started fires in parched brush. Flames charred 11,600 acres. Firemen said 20 homes were destroyed in two fires in the Glendale-Burbank area, just 12 miles north of downtown Los Angeles. The insurance agency put the count at 30 homes and the loss at perhaps $2 million more.

The fires, in turn, set the stage for fresh disaster Monday—a sea of oozy mud from flame-denuded watershed.

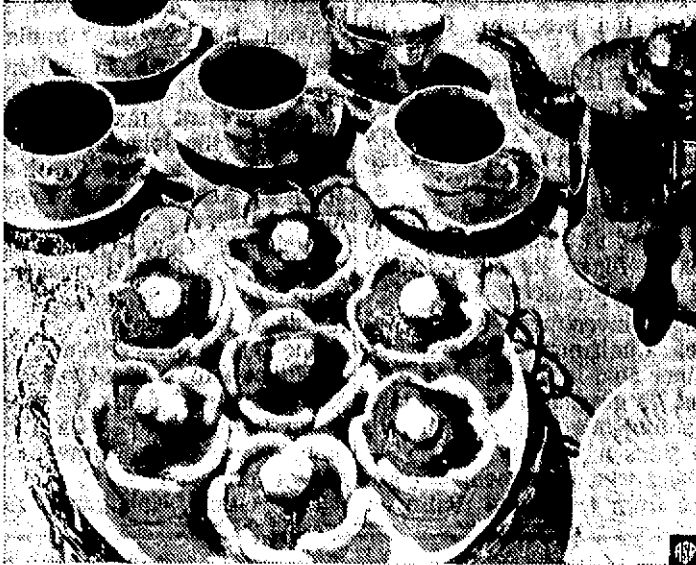

"All we heard was a great big whooshing sound. And then it was on top of us," said Ralph Johnson after a wall of mud smashed out a sliding glass door and covered every room in his house with four feet of soupy mud.

Other residents reported similar misfortune.

The picture isn't all muddy black.

The more than one inch of rain is a blessing for growers of dry-farmed crops—barley, wheat, hay, beans.

Coffee Time Flair: Pecan Petal Tarts

There are two particular ways you can quickly establish a fine reputation as hostess. First, serve a really delicious potful of coffee because everyone notices your coffee right away. Then, serve a delectable dessert that shows you have culinary flair.

Take, for instance, these pretty Pecan Petal Tarts. The luscious flavor of the filling blends coffee and pecans. And, because appearance is as important as flavor, the tiny tart shells are artistically formed of little "petals," easily assembled in muffin cups.

The tarts are the perfect size and sweetness to complement a fragrant cup of hot coffee. But be sure your coffee does you proud. Here's a tip to remember: if possible, always serve coffee immediately after brewing. If you can't, keep it warm over low heat, but never let coffee boil.

Pecan Petal Tarts

2 pkgs. pie crust mix 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
1 egg 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup brown sugar 1/2 teaspoon instant coffee
2 teaspoons instant coffee 1/2 cup coarsely broken pecan meats
Few grains salt

Prepare pie crust as directed on package, and divide in half. Roll out each half 1/4-inch thick. Cut pastry into 72 2-inch circles. Place one circle in bottom of each of 12 muffin cups. Arrange 6 overlapping circles around inside of each muffin cup, pressing securely. Beat egg just enough to blend yolk and white. Combine sugar, instant coffee and salt and add gradually to egg, beating well after each addition. Add melted butter and vanilla. Sprinkle pecans evenly into muffin cups. Spoon filling over pecans, filling cups not quite to top. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 20 minutes or until set. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes 1 dozen.

Kennedy 1/2 Dollars Circulate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Millions of half-dollars bearing the likeness of John F. Kennedy go into circulation today through the Treasury in Washington and banks across the nation.

Twenty-six million of the new half-dollars are available for distribution and about 65 million more will be circulated before the end of the year. Unless Congress changes the law the mint will turn them out for 25 years or longer.

The 50-cent piece will replace the Benjamin Franklin half-dollar, which was minted from April 1948 until the end of last year. The first coins in the new series were struck Feb. 11 at the Denver and Philadelphia mints. The Kennedy coin was authorized by a law enacted last Dec. 30.

Kennedy's likeness—taken from the presidential medal—is on the face of the coin and the familiar eagle, holding olive branch and arrows in its talons is on the back.

Tough Talk Given Poor Countries

By LAWRENCE MALKIN
GENEVA (AP)—The United States delivered a stern lecture today to the world's poor nations, urging them to forget traditional fears of investment by foreign capitalists and get to work reorganizing their backward economies.

"Economic development is an intricate and difficult process," Undersecretary of State George Ball warned the U.N. Trade and Development Conference. "It has proved difficult for the industrial countries who have gone through it in the past, and it will be so for the newer countries going through it now."

The rich nations, he added, can help with technical advice and close cooperation through such established forums as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade—GATT.

Ball said he would like these ideas to set the tone of the 122-nation conference, which has already heard spokesmen of the their need for a larger share of world trade.

Ball's speech, virtually a do-it-yourself improvement program for the have-not nations when contrasted with what they want, was not likely to go down well with the majority of the delegates from the underdeveloped nations.

Ball said the rich countries for their part must keep full employment so the world economy does not break down.

He said the poor nations should welcome private capital to develop industries, with foreign aid providing another source for more basic, long-range projects.

"Many developing countries are, I fear, still influenced by the clichés of the past," he said.

Ball said the poor nations should form their own regional economic groups to broaden their markets and pool their developing industries.

He urged the developing countries to set their own houses in order—to reorganize their

Want More Chicken in Chicken Soup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen spoke up today for more chicken in chicken soup.

When the housewife serves prepared chicken soup she shouldn't have to "turn to a microscope" to find the chicken in it, the AFL-CIO union told an Agriculture Department hearing.

The union protested that some soups sold in dehydrated form contain less than 1 per cent of poultry meat. The union says chicken or turkey soup should contain at least 2 per cent poultry meat on a ready to serve basis.

Integration Expands for Little Rock

By J. C. TILLMAN
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board moved Tuesday to integrate the last four grades in its system—while Negroes picketed outside in the rain, protesting "tokenism."

The contrast harked back to days when the board and Negroes were at odds over the same matter, but less peacefully.

The pickets marched around the building until they learned that a board member's motion to "take the initiative" and incite their leaders in for discussion failed.

Then they retired to Wesley Chapel church to hear plans for a boycott of classes April 6.

The board passed its resolution integrating the second, third, fifth and sixth grades, without a word of explanation, completing a plan started seven years ago.

The Council on Community Affairs and the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, sponsors of the picketing, termed the move "tokenism" and said it would not effect plans for the boycott.

At the rally Clifford Vaughns of Boston, a Negro field secretary for the council said four meetings would be held to make plans for and create interest in the boycott—March 26 and 30 and April 3 and 5.

"We've got to create some kind of crisis here in Little Rock before those people (the school board) move," he said.

He added, "The point is to dramatize that the Little Rock image is a false one."

Vaughns told about 50 persons at the rally, "Some people say the boycott won't work. It won't, unless your children are there." The aim, Negro leaders said, is to get most of the 7,046 Negro children in the Little Rock system out of school for the day.

Both the picketing and the rally were held peacefully. Three white counter-pickets showed up with hastily made signs. And some small children threw pebbles harmlessly. The pickets were instructed not to talk.

No arrests were made.

The Negroes passed out mimeographed sheets—mainly to newsmen—at the picket site, proclaiming, "As Negro citizens we demand that the school board and re-examine 'the full range of internal policies that are ritual to the polarization and use of capital.'"

All-Out War Unthinkable—Or Is It?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Here, after all-out war is unthinkable. President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev are agreed on that. But saying so doesn't make it a fact, although it is a good talking point.

Both sides have been talking about it since the first of the year.

The Johnson administration apparently has adopted a policy of preaching it. Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, made a big pitch on it two nights ago. Johnson followed up Tuesday.

Khrushchev had so much to say about it at the start of 1964 that his few thousand well-chosen words took up almost a whole newspaper page.

Last New Year's Eve he told every country with which the Soviet Union has diplomatic relations that no one but a madman could think of all-out war anymore.

He proposed an international agreement renouncing the use of force in settling international disputes.

Not to be outdone in this "peace offensive," Johnson answered him the very next day, saying "the time for simply talking about peace has passed—1964 should be a year in which we take further steps toward that goal."

At that time Johnson didn't answer directly some of the points raised by the Russian. The State Department had to do some thinking about it first. But meanwhile, in his Jan. 8 State of the Union message, Johnson said: "Our ultimate goal is world without war."

Then, as if to reassure anyone who might fear he could be gulled by Russian soft-talk, Johnson said "we must be constantly prepared for the worst, constantly acting for the best."

Ten days later he answered Khrushchev's New Year's Eve message directly but hardly with optimism. If it showed anything, it showed a meeting of the minds wasn't close.

For instance: in his message to Johnson, among other things he wanted to see cleared up in various places, things that conflicted with Russian interests or desires, Khrushchev said that Formosa belongs to Red China and the United States should back off it and away, which would mean abandoning the American ally, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Naturally, from the American view, Johnson wouldn't buy any of that. And, while he agreed with Khrushchev's central theme of peace, he outlined some areas where he wanted the Russians to lay off.

Three days later, Jan. 21, the United States went Khrushchev one better by proposing the big powers freeze the numbers and types of their big nuclear weapons. There has been no agreement on that, either.

On Monday night Stevenson at Princeton suggested "the central trend of our times is the emergence of what, for lack of a better label, might be called a policy of cease-fire and peaceful change."

"I would suggest we may be approaching something close to a world consensus on such a policy. We may have slipped imperceptibly into an era of peaceful settlement of disputes."

Right behind him came Johnson Tuesday in a talk to an AFL-CIO group in Washington. He suddenly departed from his prepared speech—all about his hopes at home—to talk about peace and foreign affairs.

He said: "The world as it was and the world as it is are not the same anymore. Once upon a time even large-scale wars could be waged without rising the end of civilization but what was once upon a time is no longer so—because general war is impossible."

This is just about what Khrushchev said: No one but a madman could think of all-out war anymore. Johnson and Khrushchev are agreed on that. Trouble is, they haven't agreed on how to make sure.

zens of Little Rock we protest the fact that our children are systematically excluded from the benefits of integrated schooling.

The statement, titled, "Why Picket?" ended: "They ignored our request as they have ignored countless others. Now we are driven to the streets. We must demonstrate. We must picket. It is the only path open to the Negro community."

"We shall continue to demonstrate until all the schools are opened to our children."

The board's resolution said request forms would be sent to Negroes desiring to enter the newly-integrated grades. Two of them would have been automatically integrated at the beginning of the next school term, under the board's plan.

The board said it has had no requests from Negroes to integrate the other grades.

Bizarre Cafe Out of Business

By MALCOLM STEPHENSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The cook will have to hang up his apron at the Four Winds, which advertises a "creepy kitchen, mangy menu, despicable doorman, horrible host, wretched waitress, awful owner and malicious manager."

Gone forever, perhaps, is "another world not unlike the Arabian Nights"—the description emblazoned on a sign over the entrance of the Club Bizarre.

The boss at the Feenjon Restaurant will have to lay aside that eagle feather he uses to strum on an oud—the Near Eastern instrument that sounds like a guitar and looks like a watermelon cut in half.

The dire news spread quickly Tuesday through the narrow, crooked streets of Greenwich Village.

The City Buildings Department ordered 11 coffeehouses and four open-front stores to discontinue operations on the ground they "contribute to a honky-tonk atmosphere" that violates a new zoning resolution.

The four-block area affected is bounded by streets whose names are familiar to every bohemian everywhere—MacDougal, West Third, Sullivan and

Korean Students on March

SEOUL (AP)—Troops used tear gas today to block thousands of students marching on President Chung Hee Park's mansion to protest concessions to Japan in Tokyo talk seeking to normalize Japanese-Korean relations.

An army lieutenant and several soldiers were injured when the shouting mob tried to force its way toward Park's hillside mansion. The president was believed inside.

Steel-helmeted combat troops armed with rifles fired tear gas grenades into one surging crowd. The students replied with a barrage of rocks.

About 2,000 students from Han-Yang University jammed the area and stood within arm's length of the troops, who were Another 2,000 students marched on the capitol building and sent in two representatives to Premier Choi Doo-sun with a set of questions about the Tokyo talks.

Earlier today several thousand students were blocked by riot police about 200 yards from Park's residence. Home Minister Um Min-yung conferred briefly with the leaders and led two into the presidential mansion where they saw Lee Hu-rak, the president's chief secretary.

The students said later they explained their demands and Lee promised to set up a meeting between Park and student leaders this week.

More than 10,000 students joined in the demonstrations, which were held for the second straight day to denounce Park's handling of the Tokyo talks and to demand that they be suspended. Similar demonstrations were staged in Pusan and Taegu, Korea's second and third largest cities.

Seek More Farm Labor for Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new organization is being formed here to help farmers attack the problem of finding sufficient seasonal workers to harvest cotton, fruit, vegetable and other crops.

It will be known as the National Council of Agricultural Employers. Its creation—including incorporation and establishment of headquarters in Washington—has been authorized by the National Farm Labor Users Committee of which J. B. Kirklin, cotton farmer at Pecos, Tex., is chairman.

A statement announcing creation of the council said many farmers are expressing alarm over reports of future farm labor shortages.

Formal inauguration of the council is scheduled at a nationwide meeting of farm employers in mid-May.

Chris Rainsner, a San Francisco State College senior and area chairman of the committee, said the Cuban Federation of University Students offered to pay all expenses of some 500 Americans for the July trip.

So far, said Rainsner, about 40 San Francisco area students have signed up.

Medicare Is Hoped for During 1964

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson was described today as very hopeful that Congress will act this year on legislation to provide health care for the elderly, financed through Social Security.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview that Johnson had canvassed the prospects for the program at a White House meeting with Democratic congressional chieftains Tuesday.

"The President is very interested in getting action on this matter and intends to press for it," Humphrey said.

Johnson told the United Automobile Workers convention in Atlantic City, N.J., Monday: "We are going to pass a medical assistance bill for the aged no matter how many months it takes. The sensible and prudent and lasting way to do this is through the Social Security System."

This pledge was open to at least two different interpretations. Most members of Congress seemed to think the President was conceding that "many months"—stretching into next year—would be required to get a bill passed. Others thought he meant he wanted Congress to stay on this year to get the job done.

Humphrey sided with the latter interpretation. He said he thinks there is a good possibility that some arrangements can be made to get House action on the health care issue.

"I understand some changes in the Social Security laws are going to be considered," he said. "That would be a logical place to include this program."

The late President John F. Kennedy tried to move the proposal through the House last year but encountered formidable opposition from Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the

Introducing New Press Secretary

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Reedy is a friendly, pipe puffing giant of a man who is taking on the almost impossible task of trying to keep both the press and President happy about public relations.

Sunny, cigar-smoking Pierre Salinger suddenly quit this job of White House press secretary Thursday to try for the Democratic nomination for the Senate in California.

With him went Andrew T. Hatcher, the assistant press secretary to the President and one of the highest ranking Negroes in government.

For Reedy there is nothing like the break with the past that there is for Salinger. Reedy has been at President Johnson's elbow as a sort of press attaché the better part of 13 years.

Around the White House he has been one of the Johnson handy men with no clear-cut title. Now he has a title and one of the roughest, most responsible publicity jobs on earth. At times his voice will be the voice of the nation on foreign and domestic policy.

But since he has been so close to Johnson so long, Reedy at times may find that the boss is going to be his own press secretary.

Like Salinger, Reedy is a former newspaperman. At 46, he is eight years older.

Like Salinger, Reedy enjoys good food and, like Salinger, he is on the round side but on a more massive scale.

On orders of Johnson and the doctor, Reedy is scaling down calories and poundage. From 265 or 270 pounds he is about a third of the way to the 200 the doctor recommends.

Reedy still was in hospital Thursday, recovering from gall bladder trouble and doing some supervised dieting, when he got word of the forthcoming change. He went to the White House for a joint appearance at his first press briefing and Salinger's last.

Salinger announced his own resignation and the appointment of Reedy.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Award-giving has become a spring event as inevitable as the return of the swallows.

Television and allied industries play the awards game furiously, and for a while now the television screens will frequently be peopled with smiling winners, earnestly thanking "the great team that made all this possible."

It is difficult to see how anyone can make voting decisions on "the best" in any of the usual categories. After hundreds of hours spent looking at hundreds of television programs, it is hard indeed even to recall most of the programs.

If I were forced into personal decisions, I would probably pick CBS' "The Defenders" as consistently, the most interesting dramatic series; CBS' "The Danny Kaye Show" (which has sharp ups and downs) as my favorite variety hour. "The Dick Van Dyke Show" also on CBS is, far and away, my choice as a really funny comedy series.

In the panel-quizz-audience participation show category, "College Bowl" on NBC has my vote, although for relaxed amusement, I enjoy "You Don't Say," on NBC.

Among the public affairs and news shows, my preferences are "CBS Reports" and NBC's "Meet the Press."

Memorable events of the past television year—since last April—all are dwarfed, of course, by vivid recollections of its splendid coverage during the four tragic days starting Nov. 22.

Among the dramatic shows I recall are NBC's "Show of the Week" called "Ride with Terror," a shocker, and "The Case Against Paul Ryker," a two-part drama on NBC's "Suspense Theatre."

The two CBS Bing Crosby specials were especially delightful, and the 60-minute experimental "That Was the Week That Was" in November was lots of fun—although the half-hour series it inspired on NBC has proved a sharp disappointment.

Ways and Means Committee, Kennedy had been assured of the votes for Senate passage if the House acted.

There has been no outward sign that Mills has softened his opposition to the program. If Mills remains strongly opposed it, Johnson will need all of his political persuasiveness to get the committee to override the chairman.

Unless he can get Mills to go along, politicians think Johnson would accomplish a near-miracle by getting any bill passed before the November election.

Spring Forecast—Lime Snow

Cool, shimmering Lime Snow is one of the most delectable of desserts—and a snap to make this new quick-gel way. The ingredients include unthawed frozen limeade concentrate and ice water; both of these ingredients speed up the chilling process. A beautiful molded dessert always appears elaborate—and many are simple to prepare. An attractive new booklet provides some excellent recipes and a premium offer for two molds. Write to Molds, Suite 1100, 551 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017, for your free copy of "Classic American Gelatine Recipes."

Lime Snow

2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
1 cup cold water
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 can (6 ounces) frozen limeade concentrate, kept frozen
½ cup ice water
2 egg whites

Sprinkle gelatine over water in saucepan. Place over low heat; stir constantly until gelatine dissolves, 2 to 3 minutes. Stir in sugar and salt. Add limeade concentrate and ice water; stir until concentrate is melted. Chill until slightly thicker than consistency of unbeaten egg white. Add egg whites to gelatine mixture; beat until mixture begins to hold its shape. Turn into 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold; garnish with twisted slice of lime. If desired, serve with whipped cream, custard sauce, or fruit.

YIELD: 8 servings.

New Flareup of Gunfire in Florida

By DON MCKEE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Flames and gunfire crackled in sections of this tense seaport for the second night, harshly punctuating racial violence which has killed one person and injured a dozen others.

Fires broke out Tuesday night in several Negro areas. Shotgun charges splattered a school building and a police car. Rocks and bottles struck several autos, injuring at least one motorist.

Mayor Haydon Burns, canceling a visit to Tampa in his campaign for governor, told his supporters there in a telephone speech that things were under control in Jacksonville.

Heavily reinforced police details rounded up more than 100 Negroes during the night, raising the total arrests to nearly 350 since Monday's outbreak of violence climaxed weeks of anti-segregation demonstrations.

More than 20 Negroes and two white youths were charged with carrying firearms, said Asst. Police Chief H. V. Branch. Two Negroes had firebombs, he said.

At least three blades were attributed to firebombs. Firemen answered about 50 calls—40 of them false alarms.

A shotgun blast shattered two windows of Central Adult School a block from police headquarters. Ten persons in a second story classroom escaped injury.

Police Sgt. James Miller said his car was hit by a shot from a shotgun charge hit his car as he was driving through a Negro section. He was not hurt.

Motorists reported they ran into a hail of bricks and other missiles at several intersections in predominantly Negro areas. One person was cut by flying glass from a shattered windshield.

At least seven persons were injured during the day and night in various incidents.

Shortly after midnight police reported 74 cases docketed. Charges included vandalism, damage to private property, disorderly conduct, possession of firearms and fire bombs, vagrancy and prowling.

Weapons seized included a derringer, several pistols and rifles and a wide variety of knives.

The trouble Tuesday started after a false bomb threat at a Negro high school. Negroes overturned and burned a newsman's car and beat a magazine photographer.

A white woman reported she was pulled from her car and kicked by a Negro. She was treated at a hospital and released.

White persons stayed out of Negro areas even during daylight hours. The Jacksonville Coach Co. discontinued bus service to Negro sections.

The racial explosion Monday night resulted in the shooting death of a Negro woman and the wounding of three other persons. Missiles thrown at autos injured a fireman, a policeman and a white motorist.

Haircut Is Subject of a Lawsuit

NEW IBERIA, La. (AP)—A father convicted of slugging a high school principal over the question of approved haircuts planned two appeals today—one to the State District Court and the other to sympathetic parents.

George Mouton, a service station operator, was convicted Monday of slugging John McGraw, principal of the New Iberia High School, on March 17.

Mouton was annoyed because his son, Glenn, 15, has been sent home earlier in the day with orders to stay there until his haircut satisfied school authorities.

The question of how long is a haircut has been simmering for some time. To the rule that pupils cannot have long hair, parents claimed an attempt was being made to have everyone wear a crew cut.

Mouton asked all persons who backed his ideas on the matter to appear before the Iberia Parish (County) School Board next month to thresh out the matter.

Inner Ear Plaguing John Glenn

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The ailment which has kept Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. hospitalized since Feb. 26 is an inflammation of the inner ear called labyrinthitis, the Cleveland Plain Dealer reported today.

Doctors at the School of Aerospace Medicine, Brooks Air Force Base, Tex., have said Glenn suffers from a disturbance in the equilibrium centers of the inner ear, but the ailment had not been named before.

Glenn, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator from Ohio, was injured when he slipped on a bath mat in his Columbus apartment and struck his head just below the left ear in the fall. At that time the injury was described simply as a brain concussion.

Bolivia Demands Port From Chile

LA PAZ, Bolivia, (AP)—About 30,000 Bolivians led by President Victor Paz Estenssoro took part in a "march to the sea" Monday to publicize this landlocked nation's demand for a port on the Pacific.

Bolivia wants a port from Chile, which took Bolivia's sea coast after a war in 1879. Chile has rejected the Bolivian demand and diplomatic relations between the two countries are broken.

James Mailer of Fort Smith, vice president of the Arkansas division of the firm, said the reductions will be made because of recent federal income tax reductions. He said an application for the rate decrease will be filed with the Arkansas and Oklahoma Public Service Commissions.

About 100,000 annually will be involved, he said, and the new rates probably will become effective before this summer.

Mail to Congress Conflicting

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citizens who write their senators or congressman could wonder today just how much influence they are exerting on the passage of legislation.

Based on the reports on their civil rights mail by two Republican senators from states which include the nation's two largest cities, the answer seemed to be probably not much, because they may be offsetting each other.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., told the Senate Tuesday that for the first time in two weeks his New York State mail reflected a majority of expressions in favor of the House-passed civil rights bill now before the Senate.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois reported at a news conference, however, that his mail is running 9 to 1 against the bill.

Keating has intensified his vocal support of the measure during the last two weeks, when he said he was astounded to find that those who wrote him were about equally opposed to and in favor of the House bill.

With a sigh of satisfaction, however, he announced a "breakthrough" had been achieved in the previous day's mail. Of 1,179 letters from New York, Keating said that 840 favored the bill and 239 were against it.

Dirksen, who is proposing changes in the bill, said he is getting 1,000 letters a day. He said they are running 9-1 against the measure in its present form.

Asked what he thought such a preponderance of opposition meant, he replied, "I just don't know."

He did volunteer at another point that he thinks people are getting worked up because they are finding out how the legislation might affect them.

Johnsons' Washington Home Sold

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson have sold their former Washington home, The Elms, to a Miami, Fla., businessman, the Washington Post reported today.

The newspaper said Luther B. Smith, a major stockholder in some 25 corporations largely in the aircraft industry, signed a sales contract arranged by the American Security Corp.

Smith, who has homes in Miami and Reno, Neb., is chairman of the board of the Terodex Corp., and also is president of L. B. Smith, a heavy construction equipment company with offices in Harrisburg, Pa., and Baltimore, Md.

The Post said Smith bought the house as a surprise for his wife. Mrs. Smith had seen the house several years ago when the couple were guests at a party given by the former owner, Perle Mesta.

The Post said the price was not disclosed but it was understood that the property was in the $200,000 bracket.

Olé! Red Beans, Mexico-Way!

Down Mexico-Way, surprising things are done with dried beans — the addition of a tablespoon of grated unsweetened chocolate, for instance, to a pot of simmering red beans. Unbelievable, this alliance with the robust seasonings of chili powder, herbs, and the like, but unbelievably good. P.S. You won't know it's there as far as chocolate flavor goes.

Serve this whole-meal dish — so good made with Idaho's unusual colorful red beans — with corn chips or squares of corn bread, and a salad of greens, thin-sliced oranges, sweet onion rings, and wedges of avocado. Or let the beans be an extender-partner to barbecued meats.

Red Beans, Mexico-Way

1 pound (2 and 1/4 cups) Idaho dried red beans
6 cups cold water
1 cup coarsely chopped onion
1/2 cup coarsely-chopped green pepper
1 fat clove garlic crushed or minced
1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
2 teaspoons salt
2 to 3 teaspoons chili powder
1/2 teaspoon crushed dried rosemary or oregano
1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
5 drops liquid hot pepper sauce
1 tablespoon grated unsweetened chocolate

Add washed beans to water in heavy kettle. Bring to boiling point over high heat. Boil 2 minutes only. Remove from heat. Add 1/2 teaspoon soda to soften water. Cover. Let stand 1 hour. Or, soak beans overnight in measured amount of water and soda. To cook, add 2 tablespoons butter, oil, or meat drippings to beans and soaking water. Bring to boiling point. Reduce heat. Cover and simmer 1 hour. Then add remaining ingredients. Simmer, covered, for 1 and 1/2 hours or until beans are tender. Taste for added chili powder.

To serve, turn beans into a heated serving dish or casserole. Garnish top with green pepper rings or with little squares of Monterey cheese. Makes 6 hearty servings of really Good Eating!

The mother of two children and a grandmother of six returned Tuesday from a Paris meeting of the International Federation of University Women.

LONDON (AP) — The dowager grandmother of King Baudouin of the Belgians, Queen Elisabeth, has arrived in London "for reasons of health." A Belgian Embassy spokesman wouldn't give any details about what brought the 87-year-old queen here from Brussels Tuesday.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor escaped injury Tuesday when her car collided with another vehicle on a slippery road near her Bel-Air home.

NEW YORK (AP) — "It's so alive and it never sleeps," is the latest description of New York City. The comment comes from America's Junior Miss of 1964, Linda Felber, 18, of Colfax, Wash., who spent her first full day in New York Tuesday. She told newsmen she eventually hoped to go into theater or work in anthropology.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It took Jackie Loughery, a former Miss U.S.A., less than four minutes to get a divorce from Jack Webb along with $99,000 alimony.

The shapely actress complained that Webb was married to his work as a television actor, producer and director. This was the same complaint Webb's first two wives, Julie London, and Dorothy Towne, used to get divorces from him.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and his family won't have to worry about finding a place to ski Easter weekend. He was unable to get reservations at Sun Valley, Idaho, but Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, sent the attorney general this telegram Tuesday: "Invite all the Kennedy's to come to Utah. Our snow exceeds 100 inches in depth, topped by new powder. Can assure excellent accommodations in Salt Lake City."

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Foreign Minister Subandrio left for the Netherlands today to seek better relations with Indonesia's former colonial master and more Dutch business for the sagging Indonesian economy.

Informed sources said Subandrio will try to persuade Dutch businessmen to resume trade with Indonesia, but he is not expected to ask the Dutch government for trade credits.

LONDON (AP) — Judges of Britain's Royal Academy today finished scrutinizing 10,000 pictures entered for the academy's annual exhibition but failed to find the missing Goya portrait of the Duke of Wellington.

The Goya, which was bought for the nation for $392,000 in August, 1961, was stolen within a month from the National Gallery in Trafalgar Square. No trace of it has ever been found.

Sir Charles Wheeler, president of the academy, had suggested that the thieves return it "with no questions asked" by slipping it among the many pictures submitted for the academy's annual exhibition.

LONDON (AP) — The British Safety Council is urging industrial workers who adopt the Beatles' shaggy hair style to wear hairnets to work.

The council has put up 50,000 posters in factory locker rooms showing a 17-year-old boy who lost his Beatle cut in a machine.

Corn Flake Pancakes Highlight Tray Breakfast

Tray breakfasts are fun, especially when the menu includes piping hot corn flake pancakes with butter and syrup, served in place of the usual toast, which is part of an adequate breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter. Corn flake pancakes are easy to make—merely add the corn flakes to the batter. For additional variety—add a note of spring by placing a tiny pot of violets on the tray.

Pancakes with cereal flakes are but one way to vary breakfast breads. Muffins, coffee cakes, biscuits, and quick breads all take on new textures, flavors, and have increased nutritional value by the addition of breakfast cereals.

Corn Flake Pancakes

1 cup pancake mix
1 cup milk
1 egg
3 tablespoons melted shortening or cooking oil
1 cup corn flakes

Combine pancake mix, milk, egg, and melted shortening or oil in mixing bowl; stir until dry ingredients are moistened and batter is fairly smooth. Stir corn flakes into batter. Pour 1/4 cup batter onto a hot griddle for each pancake; bake until underside of each pancake is browned and top is full of bubbles. Turn and cook until second side of pancake is brown. Yield: About 8 pancakes.

It took them 10 minutes to get through the orders for miscellaneous equipment, the gangs to handle it and put down a road the drilling and mucking, timbering, hauling, and the staggering maze of detailed other services projected by the quorum of Board members Charlie had walked out on. Then the shares were brought up and passed out to those present, and right about there Medders lunged to his feet.

"Passed out!" he shouted, grabbing off his hat. "Ain't been enough time to hev any printed!" And he glared so fierce Imogene shrank back, eyes like scorched holes in the bedsheet pallor of her pulled-tight cheeks.

Yet it was not fright which made her peer at him so—or perhaps it was, a little. Mostly, however, this was caused by distaste, a patrician repugnance for the crudity of him, his offensive language, the reckless ever-churning tendency she felt in him toward violence.

Looking down her nose she said clearly and sharply: "You are wrong about that. T.K.'s been way ahead of you. The share certificates, needing only the signature of Secretary Treasurer, were already printed and in the drawer of his desk when you left in such a dudgeon. Anticipating your reaction, knowing the Board would almost certainly approve the floating of a stock issue to be sold to the general public, it may astonish you to know he had those ready, too; they'll be offered through the Exchange as soon as the news stories have encouraged a proper demand."

Like the kiss of death her smile curled around him; and then, still hugging her notebook with the page he had stupidly signed, she was gone.

It took several minutes for Medders to realize the implication.

With Indonesia, but he is not expected to ask the Dutch government for trade credits.

Medders lost himself in the heart of the storm and when it blew itself out his mind was made up. Jones and his stooges had rigged the deck. With his name and his ore they had everything stacked to make a big killing. All the machinery and other equipment so brazenly detailed in the company minutes didn't mean that they had it or ever would—except on paper. It would make a prospectus look awfully good to the widows and orphans and the rest of the suckers.

He peered around, got his bearings, and struck off north, hauling Begetta drag-footed after him. He had two big cans of water buried close and, soon as the moon got properly up, he reckoned to find them. It was all right to talk, but deep in his bones Medders knew mighty well he had not yet heard the last of that banker.

Well, a man had no recourse against such vultures in town, but out here things were different. A good man with a rifle could get a run for his money.

Shopping Booms for Easter

By JACK LEFLER

AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Easter buying appears headed for a record helped by a boost from the income tax cut.

Merchants say most of the effect of the tax reduction is psychological because taxpayers haven't realized much as yet in the way of savings.

Shopping got off to a rather fast start because Easter falls so early this year, and was reported picking up steam as the holiday approached.

In New York, J. Gordon Dakins, executive secretary of the National Retail Merchants Association, said reports from around the country indicated a 5 per cent gain over last year although snows, floods and tornadoes hampered shopping in some areas.

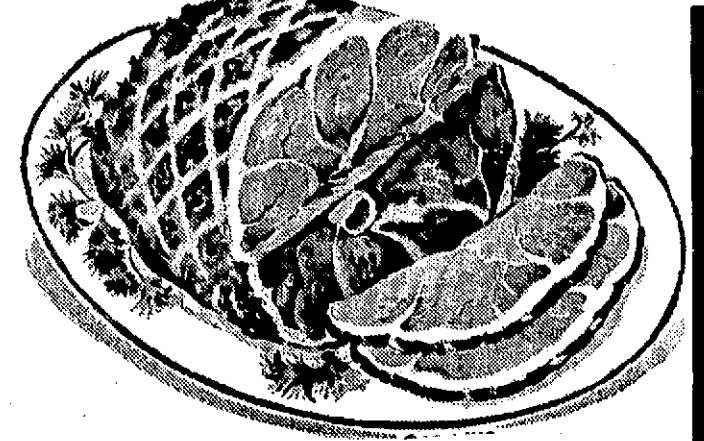

Dakins said the tax cut was one element making it possible to sell more goods. People have fewer worries and more confidence in the future, he said, and are spending accordingly.

Most of the money, as usual, is going into apparel for the Easter parades.

An Associated Press survey of major cities indicated the buying trend is up in most areas.

"On a day for day basis we are beating sales recorded the same number of days before Easter last year," said Geoffrey Swaabe, president of the Macy's Co. department stores of Los Angeles. "We are looking forward to the impact of the tax cut being very good."
